SALBA – A GOOD SOURCE OF OMEGA-3 ESSENTIAL FATTY ACIDS

Posted by auntjayne in Celiac Disease, Celiac Support, GLUTEN FREE BUSINESSES, General Information. Tagged: Celiac Disease, Gluten free, Celiac, cooking, food. No Comments

Salba Smart's mission is to market Salba Seed and to develop and market innovative organic and all natural food products rich in Omega-3 essential fatty acids and nutrients that combine great taste and added nutrition. Some of our products that incorporate Salba Seed include Salba Smart organic tortilla chips, Salba Smart organic salsa, Salba Smart made with organic pretzels, and Salba Smart all natural wheat and whole wheat tortillas. More Salba Smart organic and all natural products will be introduced as they are developed.

Please visit our website www.salbasmart.com for more information about Salba (gluten free) and our other gluten free value added products (tortilla chips and salsas). The pretzels and tortillas are not gluten free.
